OH HEAVEN'S glorious mistress,
enthron'd above the starry sky!
Thou feedest with thy sacred breast
Thy own Creator, Lord most high.

What man had lost in hapless Eve,
Thy sacred womb to man restores,
Thou to the wretched here beneath
Hast open'd Heaven's eternal doors.

Hail, O refulgent Hall of light!
Hail Gate august of Heaven's high King!
Through thee redeem'd to endless life,
Thy praise let all the nations sing.

To the Father and the Spirit and to thy Son all glory be,
who with a wondrous garment
of graces encircled thee. Amen.

With the beginning of May, also looms the threat of the dreaded hurricane season. We will say this prayer at all the Masses each day here, and we ask you to cut this out and place it in a strategic place in your homes or prayer books so that you can say it at home, too. This is most important to us singularly and as a Parish. Please say this prayer every day!

We beseech Thee, O Lord, to drive far from Thy dwelling place every spirit of wickedness, and to keep us from being harmed by the fury of wind and storm.

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who chastising dost preserve us: grant unto Thy suppliants the comfort of the quiet times for which we look, and teach us ever to make right use of the good gifts Thy loving kindness vouchsafes to us. Amen.

(From the Roman Missal)

*Saint Vitus and Saint Genevieve. Pray for Us.
(Patron Saints Against Storms and Disasters)*

Listen to the Lord's appeal: In Me, I want you to see your own body, your members, your heart, your bones, your blood. You may fear what is divine, but why not love what is human? You may run away from Me as the Lord, but why not run to Me as your Father? Perhaps you are filled with shame for causing My bitter Passion. Do not be afraid. This Cross inflicts a mortal injury, not on Me, but on death. These nails no longer pain Me, but only deepen your love for Me. I do not cry out because of these wounds, but through them I draw you into My Heart. My Body was stretched on the Cross as a symbol, not of how much I suffered, but of My all-embracing Love. I count it no less to shed My Blood: it is the price I have paid for your ransom. Come, then, return to Me and learn to know Me as your Father, who repays good for evil, love for injury, and boundless charity for piercing wounds.

(From a Sermon of St. Peter Chrysologus, Doctor of the Church, +450)

O most holy Virgin Mary, always present before the most Holy Trinity, to whom it is granted at all times to pray for us to your most blessed Son, pray for me in all my needs. Help me, defend me, give thanks for me, and obtain for me the pardon of all my sins and failings. Help me especially in my last hours. Then, when I can no longer give any sign of the use of reason, give me courage and protect me against all evil spirits. Make in my name a profession of faith. Assure me of my eternal salvation. Never let me despair of the mercy of God. Help me to overcome the evil spirits. When I can no longer say, "Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I place my soul in your hands," say it for me. When I can no longer hear human words of consolation, bring me comfort. Stay with me when I stand in judgment before your Son. If I have to do penance for my sins in purgatory, pray for me after my death. Inspire my friends to pray for me, and thus help gain for me very soon the happiness of being in the presence of God. Lead my soul to heaven where, united with all the elect, I may bless and praise God and yourself for all eternity. Amen.
