NOVEMBER - MONTH OF THE SAINTS AND THE HOLY SOULS

Already, in the third century the feast of All the Martyrs was kept, first in the Orient, and then in Rome and all its daughter churches (dioceses). When in 610 the former tomb of Caesar Augustus' son-in-law, the Pantheon, was dedicated by the Pope under the title of St. Mary and the Martyrs, the celebration was held on May 13th, by this time including all the other Saints. However, the Irish monks celebrated this feast on November 1st. It was in the tenth century (910) that the monks of the great Abbey of Cluny in France from which came a tremendous reform of the Benedictine Order under Saints Odo, Hugh, Odilon, and from which came many Bishops and Popes, among them the great Reformer, St. Gregory VII, the Feast was celebrated and expanded throughout the Catholic world on this day. Not only are all the canonized Saints celebrated but All the Saints in Heaven. And, remember, anyone who is in Heaven with God IS a Saint! Thus YOU are called to be as well!

Also at the great Abbey of Cluny, since the tenth century, the day after All Saints' was chosen as a day on which to commemorate and pray for all the Dead, that is, the Holy Souls in Purgatory, who are paying the price of their sins which they did not make up for while alive on earth, as nothing that is sinful or tainted can enter the Heavenly Realms - the Beatific Vision of the Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit with all the Choirs of Angels and Saints. Thus, in His mercy, God grants us all a last chance to cleanse ourselves from the taint of sin. Thus the Communion of Saints is established by God; the Church Militant on earth; the Church Suffering in Purgatory, and the Church Triumphant in Heaven. While the Souls in Purgatory can and do pray for all of us here, they can do nothing for themselves. The ability to merit grace or gain indulgences ceases at death. As such, they have absolute need of US and our suffrages for their Souls, that they may be released from the cleansing fires. Thus, the Church prays for the Dead at every Mass and many other prayers. This day in particular and the 7 following days we can gain a Plenary Indulgence for any or all the souls in Purgatory by the usual mode as well as visiting the tombs of the dead.
